11. At all times relevant to this action, Defendant Atlantic Fabrication & Coatings, LLC (“Atlantic Fabrication”), has been an employer within the meaning of 29 U.S.C. § 152(2) and Section 3(5) of ERISA, 29 U.S.C. § 1002(5), and has been engaged in an industry affecting commerce within the meanings of Sections 3(11) and (12) of ERISA, 29 U.S.C. §§ 1002(11) and (12). Upon information and belief, at all times relevant to this action, Atlantic Fabrication has been incorporated in the state of New Jersey with a principal place of business at 72 Putnam Street, Paterson, NJ 07524.

Factual Background

12. At all times relevant to this action through November 1, 2020, Defendant employed employees represented for the purposes of collective bargaining by the International Association of Sheet Metal, Air, Rail and Transportation Union (formerly known as the Sheet Metal Workers' International Association), Local Union No. 28 ("Local 28" or the "Union"), a labor organization representing employees in an industry affecting interstate commerce.

13. At all times relevant to this action through November 1, 2020, Defendant was signatory to, and bound by, a collective bargaining agreement ("Agreement" or "CBA") with the Union. Pursuant to the Agreement, Defendant is obligated to submit monthly remittance reports and fringe benefit contributions to NPF, ITI, SASMI, SMOHIT, and NEMIC for all hours worked or paid on behalf of Defendant's covered employees within the jurisdiction of Local 28.

14. Pursuant to the Agreement, Defendant is obligated to abide by the terms and conditions of the Trust Agreements establishing the Funds, including any amendments thereto and policies and procedures adopted by the Boards of Trustees ("Trust Documents").

15. Article V, Section 3 of the governing Trust Agreement and Section V of NPF's Procedures for the Collection of Contributions both provide that the Funds may audit a contributing employer for the purposes of assuring the accuracy of reports and ensuring that such employer has remitted the appropriate amount of contributions to the Funds.

16. Article V, Section 6(a) of the governing Trust Agreement provides that a participating employer is liable for an Exit Contribution to the NPF if it: (i) ceases to have an obligation to contribute to the NPF, and (ii) had an event of withdrawal under Title IV of ERISA as a result of the cessation of its obligation to contribute but was not required to pay withdrawal liability under Title IV of ERISA.

17. Article V, Section 6(b) of the governing Trust Agreement provides that “[b]y agreeing to contribute, continuing to contribute, or continuing to be obligated to contribute, to the Fund, each Employer agrees to pay an Exit Contribution in accordance with Section 6. The Employer’s obligation to pay an Exit Contribution under this Section 6 is independent of the Employer’s collective bargaining agreement and continues to apply after the termination of the collective bargaining agreement (notwithstanding any language to the contrary in the collective bargaining agreement).”

18. An employer meeting the conditions described in Article V, Section 6(a) of the Trust Agreement shall pay an Exit Contribution to the NPF after the expiration of its collective bargaining agreement if it ceases to have an obligation to contribute to the NPF as a result of such expiration, and it did not enter into a successor collective bargaining agreement requiring contributions to the NPF.

19. The amount of an employer’s Exit Contribution is equal to the amount of the employer’s contributions due for the 36-month period preceding the month in which the employer ceased to have an obligation to contribute to the NPF.

20. An Exit Contribution is required to be paid to the NPF no later than the 20th day of the month following the month in which NPF assessed the Exit Contribution by sending written demand for the payment of the employer’s Exit Contribution.

21. Pursuant to Article V, Section 6(g) of the Trust Agreement, an Exit Contribution is a type of contribution that an employer is obligated to pay under the Trust Agreement. As such, an employer’s failure to make an Exit Contribution constitutes a delinquency and is treated in the same manner as any other delinquent contribution.

22. Pursuant to Sections 502 and 515 of ERISA, 29 U.S.C. §§ 1132 and 1145, the Agreement, the Trust Documents, and Section 301 of the LMRA, 29 U.S.C. § 185, if Defendant fails to timely submit the contractually required remittance reports and contribution payments, including Exit Contribution payments, and the Funds file a lawsuit to recover the unpaid contributions, Defendant is required to pay the following amounts to the Funds:

a. Interest on the delinquent contributions at a rate of 0.0233% per day, compounded daily;

b. Liquidated damages equal to the greater of: fifty dollars ($50.00) or ten percent (10%) of the contributions due for each month of contributions that the Company fails to pay within 30 days after the due date, but pays before any lawsuit is filed;

c. Liquidated damages equal to the greater of interest on the delinquent contributions at the above rate or liquidated damages equal to twenty percent (20%) of the delinquent contributions owed upon commencement of litigation; and

d. The attorneys' fees and costs incurred by the Funds in pursuing the delinquent amounts, including the attorneys' fees and costs in this action.

23. For the months of July 2016 through March 2019, a payroll audit of Defendant shows that Defendant violated the terms of the CBA by subcontracting out covered work and as a result owes contributions to the Funds under the Agreement, Trust Documents, Section 515 of ERISA, 29 U.S.C. § 1145, and Section 301 of the LMRA, 29 U.S.C. § 185.

24. Additionally, Atlantic Fabrication ceased to have an obligation to contribute to the NPF and had an event of withdrawal under Title IV of ERISA as a result of the cessation of its obligation to contribute as of November 1, 2020. Atlantic Fabrication was not required to pay withdrawal liability under Title IV of ERISA. Therefore, Atlantic Fabrication owes an Exit Contribution pursuant to Article V, Section 6(a) of the governing Trust Agreement.

Count I

Amounts Owed Pursuant to Audit

25. Plaintiffs reallege and incorporate Paragraphs 1 through 27.

26. This claim arises under Sections 502(a)(3) and 515 of ERISA, 29 U.S.C. §§ 1132(a)(3) and 1145, and Section 301 of the LMRA, 29 U.S.C. § 185.

27. Defendant is obligated, under the terms of the Agreement, to provide contributions to the Funds for the performance of work covered by the CBA. In addition, Article II, Section 2 of the CBA expressly prohibits Defendant from subcontracting covered work. Defendant has failed and refused to fulfill its contractual obligations by subcontracting covered work as demonstrated by a payroll audit conducted on Defendant by the Funds for the period of July 2016 through March 2019.

28. A plan may seek damages for an employer's violation of a subcontracting provision. See Walsh v. Schlecht, 429 U.S. 401, 407 (1977). In such circumstances, the funds calculate the required payments due from the delinquent employer measured by the hours worked by the subcontractor's employees, regardless of whether the subcontractor's employees benefit from such payments. See id. at 407; see also Sheet Metal Workers' Health & Welfare Fund of N.C. v. Stromberg Metal Works, Inc., No. 5:21-CV-101-BO, 2021 BL 362052, at *10 (E.D.N.C. Sept. 22, 2021). As such, Defendant owes contributions, interest, and liquidated damages to the Funds. While contributions remain unpaid, interest continues to accrue on these delinquent contributions and audit fees have been assessed pursuant to the Funds' governing documents.

29. Specifically, the audit revealed that Atlantic Fabrication owes contributions in the amount of $195,516.19 for the period of July 2016 through March 2019. In addition to the contribution amounts found due, Atlantic Fabrication owes $72,778.45 in interest (calculated through October 11, 2022), $72,778.45 in liquidated damages, and $2,633.75 in audit testing fees. In total, as a result of the audit, Defendant owes $343,706.84 to the Funds for unpaid contributions, interest, liquidated damages, and testing fees. Interest continues to accrue until the date of payment.

30. Under Section 502(g) of ERISA, 29 U.S.C. § 1132(g), Plaintiffs are entitled to recover all costs of this action from Defendant, including reasonable attorneys' fees and court costs.

31. Prior to commencing this lawsuit, the Funds sent letters and attempted to directly contact Defendant to obtain the outstanding contributions from Defendant. Despite these efforts, Defendant has not resolved its delinquency. There is little prospect that, lacking judicial compulsion, Defendant will satisfy its obligations to the Funds, and pay the delinquent and unpaid contributions, liquidated damages, interest, and testing fees due on the delinquent and unpaid contributions.

32. Defendant's continued failure to pay the amounts due have caused irreparable harm to the plan participants in the form of loss of earnings and expenses of the Funds, endangered the eligibility of covered members' pension benefits, and other harm. Defendant's failure and refusal to comply with its obligations creates an atmosphere in the industry that encourages other employers to do the same.

Count II

NPF's Claim for Exit Contribution

33. Plaintiff NPF realleges and incorporate Paragraphs 1 through 32.

34. This claim arises under Sections 502(a)(3) and 515 of ERISA, 29 U.S.C. §§ 1132(a)(3) and 1145, and Section 301 of the LMRA, 29 U.S.C. § 185.

35. Defendant is obligated under the terms of the CBA, Trust Agreement, and Section 515 of ERISA to pay an Exit Contribution to the NPF if it (i) ceases to have an obligation to contribute to the NPF, and (ii) had an event of withdrawal under Title IV of ERISA as a result of the cessation of its obligation to contribute, but was not required to pay withdrawal liability under Title IV of ERISA.

36. Pursuant to Article V, Section 6 of the Trust Agreement, Defendant's obligation is independent of the CBA and continues to apply after its termination notwithstanding any language to the contrary.

37. As of November 1, 2020, Defendant ceased to have an obligation to contribute to the NPF and continued to perform work in the jurisdiction of the Agreement of the type for which contributions were previously required. This constituted a withdrawal under Title IV of ERISA, but Defendant was not required to pay withdrawal liability under ERISA's de minimis rule.

38. On December 30, 2020, the NPF notified Defendant by letter that an Exit Contribution was assessed in the amount of $95,243.87. The Exit Contribution was later revised to reflect the additional contributions due resulting from the payroll audit. The Exit Contributions thus totals $165,031.95.

39. To date, Atlantic Fabrication has failed to pay any portion of the Exit Contribution due to the NPF, despite its obligation to do so under the CBA, the Trust Agreement, and Section 515 of ERISA, 29 U.S.C. § 1145.

40. Pursuant to Article V, Section 6(g) of the Trust Agreement, an Exit Contribution is a type of contribution that an employer is obligated to pay under the Trust Agreement. As such, an employer's failure to make an Exit Contribution constitutes a delinquency and is treated in the same manner as any other delinquent contribution. Accordingly, Defendant owes interest on the unpaid Exit Contribution in the amount of $30,112.40 (through October 10, 2022) and liquidated damages in the amount of $33,006.39. Defendant owes a total of $228,160.74 due to its failure to pay the owed Exit Contribution. While the Exit Contribution remains unpaid, interest continues to accrue on the delinquent Exit Contribution.

41. Under Section 502(g) of ERISA, 29 U.S.C. § 1132(g) and the Trust Agreement, Plaintiffs are entitled to recover all costs of this action from Defendant, including reasonable attorneys' fees and court costs.

42. Despite efforts by the NPF to obtain the outstanding Exit Contribution, Defendant has not satisfied its obligation to pay the Exit Contribution. There is little prospect that, lacking judicial compulsion, Defendant will satisfy its obligations to the NPF, and pay the delinquent Exit Contribution and liquidated damages and interest due on the delinquent Exit Contribution.

43. Defendant's continued failure to pay the amounts due have caused irreparable harm to the plan participants in the form of loss of earnings and expenses of the NPF, endangered the eligibility of covered members' pension benefits, and other harm. Defendant's failure and refusal to comply with its obligations creates an atmosphere in the industry that encourages other employers to do the same.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiffs request a judgment against Defendant for all amounts and reports due to the Funds as follows:

1. Declare that Defendant violated the subcontracting provision of the CBA and owes contributions to the Funds pursuant to the Agreement;
2. Declare that Defendant is delinquent in remitting the owed Exit Contribution to the NPF pursuant to the CBA and Trust Agreement;

3. Award Plaintiffs on behalf of the Funds a judgment for Defendant's delinquent contributions found to be due by the audit for the period of July 2016 through March 2019 in the amount of $195,516.19;

4. Enter judgment against Defendant for interest on all delinquent contributions owed pursuant to the audit at a rate of 0.0233% per day, compounded daily, from the date due until the date paid or the date of the judgment, in the amount of at least $72,778.45.

5. Enter judgment against Defendant for liquidated damages in an amount equal to the greater of interest on the delinquent contributions calculated at the above rate, or 20% of the delinquent contributions, in the amount of at least $72,778.45;

6. Enter judgment against Defendant for audit testing fees in the amount of $2,633.75;

7. Award NPF a judgment for Defendant's delinquent Exit Contribution in the amount of $165,031.95;

8. Enter judgment against Defendant for interest on the Exit Contribution at a rate of 0.0233% per day, compounded daily, from the date due until the date paid or the date of the judgment in the amount of at least $30,122.40;

9. Enter judgment against Defendant for liquidated damages in an amount equal to the greater of interest on the Exit Contribution calculated at the above rate, or 20% of the Exit Contribution in the amount of at least $33,006.39;

10. Retain jurisdiction to enter judgment against Defendant for any additional amounts that may become due and owing after the outstanding reports are provided and that may become due and owing as a result of any future audit conducted;

11. Enter judgment for all attorneys' fees and costs incurred by the Funds in pursuing the delinquent amounts as provided by Section 502(g) of ERISA; and

12. Award such other relief as the Court deems just and proper.
